

Max Vögeli (interim CxO)

firm's offer

operative transitional executive tasks

mandates as member of Board of Directors and of Audit Committees

project management, coaching and controlling

- organisation and optimisation of finance and administration functions
- set-up and transition of consolidation and M.I.S. systems
- financing and capital market operations
- operative and strategic controlling
- coordination of assurance functions
- succession planning
- restructurings, operational, financial and tax-optimised
- acquisition negotiations, due diligence, integration
- pension funds

experience, expertise, competences

- CFO of industry companies and groups, both of listed and privately owned companies, as well as small firms
- set-up, rationalization and optimisation of finance and administration functions
- controller of operating companies and in group functions
- foundation, set-up and strategy development of companies, structuring of group of companies
- set-up, transition and running of consolidation systems as per IFRS and Swiss GAAP FER
- financing and treasury, steering of banking and finance policies, execution of capital market transactions
- mergers & acquisitions, lead of negotiations, organisation of due diligence, coordination of integration tasks
- investor relations including communication with media and analysts
- lead of turn-around projects combined with transitional executive functions
- definition of information systems for Board of Directors and its development to best corporate governance standards
- coordination of assurance functions, internal audit, relations with external auditors, risk management, compliance

branches

- construction industry: cement, ready-mix, building and general contractors, real estate
- watches, watch movements, fashion, furniture, print, polymers
- energy contracting
- finance and service companies

interim

